

Send me texts in the morning, let me know that you're thinking of me
"Hey, what you doin tonight?
I booked us a spot pick you up around 5"
Not getting my hopes up but I'm not gonna give up
Wearing that dress that you like, the pretty little thing that fits just right

Palms are sweaty hands are tied
Glass of red a glass of white,
Been waiting for it all damn night
Say the word and I might

Because you're giving me temptations
If you want me just say it
I don't do no hesitating
Put all my focus on you
Because you're giving me temptations
Don't leave me feeling frustrated
If you want me just say it
Because I aint ever met nobody like you
No I aint ever met nobody like you

Make me pancakes and coffee aint you just the sweetest thing
You bring it to me in bed or we could do something better instead
Not giving my hopes up but I'm not going to give up
Honey I aint trying to play
You want it, I got it I'll be on the way

Palms are sweaty hands are tied
Good thoughts, bad thoughts in my mind
We could do it all damn night
Say the word and I might

Because you're giving me temptations
If you want me just say it
I don't do no hesitating
Put all my focus on you
Because you're giving me temptations
Don't leave me feeling frustrated
If you want me just say it
Because I aint ever met nobody like you
No I aint ever met nobody like you

I can be all that you want, you need
You hoped, you dreamed
You say the word and I'll be
I'll be, I'll be

Because you're giving me temptations
If you want me just say it
I don't do no hesitating
Put all my focus on you
Because you're giving me temptations
Don't leave me feeling frustrated
If you want me just say it
Because I aint ever met nobody like you

Because you're giving me temptations
If you want me just say it
I don't do no hesitating
Put all my focus on you
Because you're giving me temptations
Don't leave me feeling frustrated
If you want me just say it
Because I aint ever met nobody like you
No I aint ever met nobody like you
